

Design and Development of Three Axis Flight Motion Simulator (FMS) for strategic applications.

Flight Motion Simulator (FMS) is a three axis table required for simulated performance evaluation of inertial sensor based equipment, Radar Seekers etc. This facility is important in strategic applications. Currently these are imported and very expensive.

Manufactured in collaboration with RCnD and ECIL.

